

MISSION BRIEFING

AVIATION MISSIONS, INC. MINISTRY NEWSLETTER

“Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.” 1 Cor. 10:31

“Texas is a long way from Maine!” This was the comment folks made to us as we were leaving our last meeting on the northern border of Maine to head for Texas for a series of meetings. That wasn’t my primary concern. Winter was coming on in the northeast and I wanted to get south before the first snow. Our motor home is not snow friendly. Every time we get on snow, it wants to swap ends.

We made it as far south as Hazelton, Pennsylvania before we got caught. Fortunately, we were able to drive out of it before serious accumulation. We thank the Lord for His watch care over us and for not letting our trips be boring.

Our meetings in Texas took us from Waxahachie to Keller to Killeen to the Fort Worth area and finally Cottdale. God blessed in these meetings as we met and made new friends in Christ.

December and January found me working as hard as I could to finish the work on the house in preparation for putting it back on the market for sale. My aim is to be ready by end of February.

During this period, I have received several calls requesting help in medical evacuation. One call for medevac was for a case where medical flight would be inappropriate; but, it was a desperate outreach for hope. These cases tug at the heart.

Another call was for medical evacuation from a hospital in Uganda. The patient wasn’t a missionary. She was the wife of a church member from the States and they were on a missions trip. Consequently, they were not members of MedJet. The cost to evacuate her by air ambulance was prohibitive. We talked with her parents in the States and recommended several courses of action. None of them were as simple or quick as MedJet, but would get her home. They are now recommending to their pastor that members who travel overseas to visit and work with missionaries get a membership in MedJet. That is good advice to consider.

On January 26th, during the ice storm that hit here, I was on the way home from an early morning dental appointment to fix a broken tooth when a car came from two lanes over and hit me on the right side of the Jeep. The impact sent the Jeep into a sideways skid that took me several oscillations to recover from and I was able to land off the road out of the way of following traffic. Fortunately, no one was hurt. The other driver’s insurance is paying to have our Jeep repaired. We thank God for His watch care over us.

Please pray with us that we will raise our support to 100% soon so that we can concentrate on helping those who need help – for preparation or evacuation.

In His Service,

Paul & Anita McCaulley
